

Let's beat Anemia through Ayurveda

ARUNIMA – An innovative project that provides instructions to pregnant women, infants, lactating mothers and school going children to include medicines and foods suitable for their body according to their condition.

Arunima is a project jointly implemented by National AYUSH Mission Kerala, Department of Indian System of Medicine, Women and Child Development Department and Ayurveda Medical Association of India.